Nonna

Nonna means “grandmother” in Italian, and everything she stands for—tradition, wisdom, beauty—is at the center of our original and most popular collection. Steeped in tradition, our round and oval designs complement classic interiors. Or mix things up and add “Nonna” to a more modern setting. Each piece contains over 25- 30 designs, and our artisans say that creating this collection is like writing a symphony.

Jewish Feasts

Our intricately hand-embroidered challah and matzoh covers are uniquely designed to add beauty to your table. Made from the finest European satin, both covers are enriched by gold and silver embroidered Hebrew words. Mairik's glorious, detailed lace edges add to the opulent look and feel.

Challah Cover

Description

Our square-shaped challah cover is skillfully embroidered by our artisans who work tirelessly until each piece is a thing of beauty and perfection. The cover's two bottom corners have a uniform pattern with "Shabbat vi Yom Tov", (Sabbath and Holidays), stitched in silver or gold on the softest satin, all framed by our classic Armenian lace edging. The result is a special piece of art that has keepsake and heirloom potential. The Mairik challah cover can also be paired with our tablecloth and napkin collection to enhance your tablescape.
